

GIVING TUESDAY

powered by SHARE Omaha

Thank you for joining the legion of Do Gooders, ready to spread kindness and good on Giving Tuesday (Dec. 3)!

WHAT: A metro-wide, do good takeover- Giving Tuesday, powered by SHARE Omaha.

WHEN: Dec. 3, 2019

HOW: Each of us, contributing a single act of real-life good – throughout our city, into our world. Volunteer, donate, surprise someone with kindness – just put positivity out there. And watch it takeover.

SHARE: Your act on social media using the hashtag #GivingTuesday402 and #GivingTuesday712

How can you be a Do Gooder?

Find ideas, opportunities and causes at GivingTuesday402.org and GivingTuesday712.org

In addition to donating, volunteering or buying the items nonprofits need, you can surprise with kindness by:

- Telling your family, friends, school, coworkers and neighbors about #GivingTuesday402 and #GivingTuesday712
- Sharing social media posts from your favorite nonprofit organizations
- Donating blood
- Shoveling a neighbor's driveway
- Adding books to a Little Free Library
- Saying thanks to first responders
- Hosting a neighborhood drive to gather items for your favorite cause
- Organizing a trash pick up
- Buying someone's coffee or lunch
- Leaving a kind note for someone you appreciate
- Giving a nice tip to a server
- Sending a letter to a college student or someone away from home
- Teaching someone your favorite skill or hobby
- Leaving quarters at a laundromat
- Visiting with your favorite senior
- Leaving a $5 coffee gift card in your favorite book at the library
- Bringing a coworker their favorite treat
- Putting positive sticky notes on a public restroom mirror
- Surprising teachers with small tokens of appreciation
- Offering to babysit for a couple's night out
- Sending surprise flowers, for no reason
- Running an errand for a friend
- Delivering sweets to a hard-working nonprofit organization
- Sending a care package to a soldier
- Telling a boss about an outstanding employee
- Giving a small gift to your mail carrier or bus driver
- Surprising your office maintenance staff with a coffee gift card
- Singing Holiday songs at a nursing home